

With your help,
NEVE MICHAEL
can change this young boy's future.

CHILDREN'S EMERGENCY CRISIS CENTER

Children removed from their homes and surroundings by Israel's Welfare Department are immediately brought to Neve Michael Children's Emergency Crisis Center. These blameless and innocent children have endured mental, physical and/or sexual abuse at the hands of those they loved and trusted.

NEVE MICHAEL

CHILDREN'S EMERGENCY CRISIS CENTER

Neve Michael Children's Village is the only multi-disciplinary children's home in Israel to offer a wide range of professional services on one site, such as psychiatry, psychology, occupational therapy, social work, conventional and para-medical therapies and education. Established in 1942, this 7-acre campus in Pardes Hanna is a safe haven for children 5 to 18 years of age who have been removed from their homes by Israel's Welfare Department due to extreme traumatic circumstances such as family dysfunction or neglect, violence in the home or mental, physical and/or sexual abuse.

Neve Michael's mission is to provide each child with the love, care and professional treatment to overcome the abuse they have endured and to offer them a chance at a better future, they so deserve.

What your dollars can do...

- $1,000 provides clothing, bedding, toiletries and professional assessment.
- $720 provides an initial professional psychological examination and tests necessary to develop individual personal treatment plans.
- $500 provides a child with school uniforms, shoes and eyeglasses for one year.
- $360 provides holiday and Shabbat clothing for one year.
- $180 provides a birthday celebration for a child.

The Israeli government helps subsidize 75% of Neve Michael's Children's Emergency Crisis Center. We rely heavily on donations from individuals and organizations to help offset the remaining costs.
